

I oppose the use of cell phones on airplanes. It would be annoying in already cramped quarters, leading to confrontations between passengers and flight crew. Further, cell phones would allow terrorists to communicate with each other on the airplane and with anyone on the ground.